

Webservant Report for April – NASCONA

Well everything is going great and I renewed our domain name for 4 years. This should give us plenty of time to see what the new service structure is going to look like. That is, if it changes.

The newsletter is still four pages long. I want to thank Geno H. for allowing me to reprint his article on the history of NA in Texas. I still need articles.

ILS,

Bob T.