

Notes from the July 2016 RCM

Nothing really much has changed since last report.

No new meetings were visited. This will be revisited soon...

The only thing that is a new issue is a request from John E., an RCM from HASCONA. HASCONA is having a picnic on 9-11 at Tom Bass Park. In the spirit of unity we are looking for members from northside and tri-county for speakers on the traditions and concepts. They are asking for a little unity, let's see what we can do.

The region report and current upcoming events are at <http://www.tbrna.org> for anyone that wants to read or download.

Next RSC: Aug 13 2016, 9:00am to 5:00pm at A Recovery Place 10929 Nacogdoches St., San Antonio, Texas...

I.L.S.,

Stewart W., The Only RCM.
